Readings for the 8th Sunday after Trinity

Old Testament: 2 Samuel 7:1-14 New International Version

God's Promise to David

7 After the king was settled in his palace and the Lord had given him rest from all his enemies around him, ² he said to Nathan the prophet, "Here I am, living in a house of cedar, while the ark of God remains in a tent."

³ Nathan replied to the king, "Whatever you have in mind, go ahead and do it, for the Lord is with you."

⁴ But that night the word of the Lord came to Nathan, saying:

⁵ "Go and tell my servant David, 'This is what the Lord says: Are you the one to build me a house to dwell in? ⁶ I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought the Israelites up out of Egypt to this day. I have been moving from place to place with a tent as my dwelling. ⁷ Wherever I have moved with all the Israelites, did I ever say to any of their rulers whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, “Why have you not built me a house of cedar?”

⁸ “Now then, tell my servant David, ‘This is what the Lord Almighty says: I took you from the pasture, from tending the flock, and appointed you ruler over my people Israel. ⁹ I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make your name great, like the names of the greatest men on earth. ¹⁰ And I will provide a place for my people Israel and will plant them so that they can have a home of their own and no longer be disturbed. Wicked people will not oppress them anymore, as they did at the beginning ¹¹ and have done ever since the time I appointed leaders^[a] over my people Israel. I will also give you rest from all your enemies.

“The Lord declares to you that the Lord himself will establish a house for you: ¹² When your days are over and you rest with your ancestors, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, your own flesh and blood, and I will establish his kingdom. ¹³ He is the one who will build a house for my Name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. ¹⁴ I will be his father, and he will be my son.

New Testament: Ephesians 2:11-22

New International Version

Jew and Gentile Reconciled Through Christ

¹¹ Therefore, remember that formerly you who are Gentiles by birth and called “uncircumcised” by those who call themselves “the circumcision” (which is done in the body by human hands)— ¹² remember that at that time you were separate from Christ, excluded from citizenship in Israel and foreigners to the covenants of the promise, without hope and without God in the world. ¹³ But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near by the blood of Christ.

¹⁴ For he himself is our peace, who has made the two groups one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility, ¹⁵ by setting aside in his flesh the law with its commands and regulations. His purpose was to create in himself one new humanity out of the two, thus making peace, ¹⁶ and in one body to reconcile both of them to God through the cross, by which he put to death their hostility. ¹⁷ He came and preached peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near. ¹⁸ For through him we both have access to the Father by one Spirit.

¹⁹ Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with God’s people and also members of his household, ²⁰ built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone. ²¹ In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord. ²² And in him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit.

Gospel: Mark 6:30-34; 53-56 New International Version

³⁰ The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to him all they had done and taught. ³¹ Then, because so many people were coming and going that they did not even have a chance to eat, he said to them, “Come with me by yourselves to a quiet place and get some rest.”

³² So they went away by themselves in a boat to a solitary place. ³³ But many who saw them leaving recognized them and ran on foot from all the towns and got there ahead of them. ³⁴ When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd. So he began teaching them many things.

⁵³ When they had crossed over, they landed at Gennesaret and anchored there. ⁵⁴ As soon as they got out of the boat, people recognized Jesus. ⁵⁵ They ran throughout that whole region and carried the sick on mats to wherever they heard he was. ⁵⁶ And wherever he went—into villages, towns or countryside—they placed the sick in the marketplaces. They begged him to let them touch even the edge of his cloak, and all who touched it were healed.

The Collect

Almighty Lord and everlasting God, we beseech you to direct, sanctify and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of your laws and the works of your commandments; that through your most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Hymn of the Week - Father in Whom we Live

Father, in whom we live,
In whom we are and move,
The glory, power and praise receive
For Thy creating love.
Let all the angel throng
Give thanks to God on high,
While earth repeats the joyful song
And echoes to the sky.

Spirit of holiness,
Let all Thy saints adore
Thy sacred energy, and bless
Thine heart renewing power.
Not angel tongues can tell
Thy love's ecstatic height,
The glorious joy unspeakable,
The beatific sight.

Incarnate Deity,
Let all the ransomed race
Render in thanks their lives to Thee
For Thy redeeming grace.
The grace to sinners showed
Ye heavenly choirs proclaim,
And cry Salvation to our God,
Salvation to the Lamb!

Eternal, Triune God,
Let all the hosts above,
Let all on earth below record
And dwell upon Thy love.
When Heav'n and earth are fled
Before Thy glorious face,
Sing all the saints Thy love hath made
Thine everlasting praise.

Congratulations to Di Waller – St Thomas' MU Update

Many congratulations to Di Waller, who has recently been elected as Diocesan President Elect for Chester Diocese and will take up this position on 1 January 2025 for an initial period of 3 years. Di has written the following piece explaining what her new role involves.

The Diocesan President in Chester Diocese is:

- ☐ Elected by voting members of Diocesan Council.
- ☐ The leader and giver of pastoral care to the branches and members in the Diocese
- ☐ Chairman of Diocesan Council which meets twice a year.
- ☐ Responsible for drawing up the agendas for and chairing the Trustees meetings within the Diocese.
- ☐ A member of World-Wide Council meeting in Mary Sumner House or at a Residential Conference as called by the General Trustees, twice a year.
- ☐ Expected to attend the Provincial Meetings held before World-Wide Council and also a conference held each year within the Northern Province from which is gained encouragement and support.
- ☐ Expected to attend other training/sharing days and Festival Services across the Northern Province.
- ☐ Responsible for reporting back to the Diocese from World-Wide Council and other meetings, passing on all the relevant information.
- ☐ Frequently invited to attend and/or speak at Deanery Festivals and special events in deaneries and branches.

As well as all of the above there are many other jobs expected of me such as providing articles for MU Matters and attending one national unit conference during the triennial. In the Chester Diocese as President, I am a Bishop's nominated member of the Diocesan Synod and is therefore a member of her local Deanery Synod and corresponding PCC. There will be plenty of correspondence to deal with and relationships to build with the Bishops of Chester, Stockport and Birkenhead and also the new Trustee Board, although there will be three General Trustees carrying on for a further three years and the Diocesan Secretary, Dawn Colwell, will stay the same which is of great benefit as she is marvellous at what she does and will be of great help as I feel my way around the post.

Our Branch at Henbury has recently been awarded a Bronze Award in the MU Rise Up Campaign, which is a campaign against domestic abuse. As the certificate frames came in a pack of three, perhaps we can now work towards earning the Silver and Gold!

I am passionate about the work of MU, which is a worldwide charitable organisation, and would love to encourage more people to join us on the second Thursday of the month at 7.30 p.m. at Henbury Parish Hall.

Di Waller.

Well done, Di. We wish you all the best in your new and exciting role.

Sad News

It is with great sadness that we advise you of the death of Anne Cockburn, a long-time member and supporter of our CAMEO group here at St Thomas'. Anne's funeral will take place at Macclesfield Crematorium on Friday 2 August at 1.15 p.m.

Weddings and Christenings

Are you celebrating a wedding or a christening in 2024? If so, you might like to look round our beautiful Victorian church. We would be delighted to show you round. To see some photos of past events, have a look on our website:
